

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an obvious (and lengthy) propaganda
piece just days
before the election
is anti-democratic
and
anti-free-speech,
since they
consistently squelch
dissenting voices.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
